

AMERICAN FRIENDS OF COMBATANTS FOR PEACE SPEAKING TOUR

April 26, 8:00pm-9:30pm
Temple Hillel B'nai Torah
120 Corey Street, West Roxbury, MA

In 2006, Israeli and Palestinian former combatants laid down their weapons and established Combatants for Peace. They forswear violence and advocate together for an end to the Occupation. The egalitarian, bi-national movement was founded on the belief that the cycle of violence can only be broken when Israelis and Palestinians join forces.

Rami Ben Ari & Osama Elewat will be telling their personal stories of transformation from violence to nonviolence, and sharing the work that they are doing to end the occupation and to bring peace to their homeland.

Co-sponsors:

Congregation Dorshei Tzedek, Nehar Shalom Community Synagogue
& Boston Workmen's Circle Center for Jewish Culture & Social Justice